1 Incredibly rare (probably unique) 6" ribbon badge that was actually worn November 19, 1863 at Lincolns Gettysburg Address, arguably the most famous words spoken in America in the 19th century. "Delegation of Gettysburg Wounded from York Hospital, Representing Fifteen states and One Hundred and Eighty Five Regiments." Worn by one of the 51 veterans wounded at the epic battle who were selected to travel by train from the hospital to witness the dedication of the National Cemetery and Lincolns immortal words.

The badge is three layers of white/red/blue, secured (and worn) with a simple straight pin. The top white ribbon shows minor light wear and soiling. The underside blue ribbon has several partial splits, likely from rubbing against the wearers coat, but is fully intact. Overall condition fine plus.

In 36 years as a full time dealer, this is only the third item I have ever seen directly connected to the Gettysburg Address. Some years ago, Scott Winslow had a printed program that brought around $25,000. More recently, a railroad pass for Secretary of the Navy Gideon Welles to travel to the dedication sold for about $45,000 at Cowans. The Welles pass was never actually used, as he decided not to attend! To the best of my knowledge, the ribbon offered here is the only example known. 18,500.

2 The best gold quartz brooch I have ever seen. Large 2 ½" solid gold pinback with symmetric panels of black and pink gold quartz flanking a sky of native turquoise. In the bay below is an exquisitely sculpted and engraved figure of Alcatraz Island and the military fortress, which was completed in 1858 and fortified at the outset of the Civil War. Circa 1860's, superb. 12,500.

3 Superb unpublished 1880's carte de visite "Devil Anse Hatfield", reverse inscribed "The Hero of Desperados". He's seated holding a Winchester lever action, with a revolver in his belt. I bought this years ago and forgot about it until the recent TV miniseries "The Hatfields and McCoys" – a great show that should be seen by everyone interested in American history. 3,950.

4 Spectacular full sheet poster 26 x 39 issued for the Alaska Yukon Pacific Expo by Round Oak Stoves, Dowagiac Mich. Indian with beadwork loincloth, moccasins and knife sheath holds aloft a huge AYPE medal. Couple insignificant tiny nicks and edge tears, near mint, on linen. 3,950.

5 Runaway slave broadside with description of negro man Lewis, Prince George County MD. Printed by Polkinhorn, Wash DC. 9 ½ x 12 ½, exc. 3,250.

6 Very rare sepia photo tobacco card Belva Lockwood, issued by Duke & Sons, Durham NC. Tiny surface chip on extreme left edge, exc. Only example I have seen. 1,000.

7 Extremely rare Will & Finck litho circa 1910-1925, 15 x 20, couple tiny thumbtack holes in narrow white margin, near mint including both original metal strips. 1,650.

8 Original broadsides related to dueling are practically nonexistent. This extremely rare pair of counter challenges and insults are from Petersburg VA 1825. On March 12, Mr. Noble states that Mr. Gilliam has tried to destroy his reputation and is refusing him "satisfaction" He is therefore a liar, slanderer and coward. Mr. Gilliam responds two days later that the charges are true and that he declines the challenge because Mr. Noble is not a gentleman but rather an unprincipled vagabond and scoundrel. Sizes 8 ½ x 9 and 6 x 8. This very pair is illustrated in Flayderman in the chapter on dueling pistols (9th edition, pg. 449) and also in Flaydermans article on dueling in the 2009 Gun Digest. Minor waterstain and edge irregularities could be matted, but is totally unnecessary. VF 6,950.

9 Ext rare woodblock poster 19 x 24 Celebrated Oxygenated Bitters. Testimonials from ten senators, congressmen and governors whose overlapping terms date this accurately to 1844-46. A few minor nicks and tiny edge flaws, overall near mint. Probably the best bitters ad I've had in 36 years 2,750

10 The rarest toy pistol I have ever offered. 5" animated figures of Uncle Sam kicking Spaniard. "Uncle Sam Said Git". Reverse "Dewey Remember the Maine – We Do". Better than 95% original nickel plating, perfect condition. This identical piece brought $11,000 years ago in a Julia auction. 7,500

11 The nicest condition George Washington inaugural button I have had in many years. GW in oval, "Long Live the President". Superb quality strike, smooth lustrous surface, original shank. You won't find a nicer one. 4,750

12 Very rare brooch pin issued for the Emancipation Proclamation. Tiny 10 mm brass medal "Millions for Freedom – Not One Cent for Slavery – 1863". The design is nearly identical to Lincoln medal (Sullivan) 1860-59 but in miniature and with the date changed from 1860 to 1863. 400.

13 Rare & desirable Lewis Cass shell medalet, a variant of LC 1848-7. While the obverse grades XF, the reverse has some light corrosion or pitting. Nonetheless, every letter of the slogan "Cass & Butler 1849" is readable. 1,950.

14 Andrew Johnson uniface ferro with date 1864 below portrait, in plain 1" brass rim. Bright and clear but with some scattered very light scratches. Reverse blank. Not in Sullivan or Hake, tiny hole at 12:00 for hanging. 375.

15 Rare portrait seal "LA FAYETTE" carved in reddish-orange carnelian. Stone is about ¾", mounted in brass charm for watch chain or chatelaine. Exc, 1820's – 30's. 1,375.

16 Excessively rare 1 3/8 litho 1932 FDR for Pres, Lewis for VP. This is not John L. Lewis but rather a man I don't recognize. He has a full head of dark hair, eyeglasses and what looks like a lighter colored moustache. Believed to be the only example known, this sold many years ago in an Anderson auction for $3430. The buyer, a well known west coast collector, disposed of it privately this past year. An exceptional opportunity. 3,950.

17 1872 Grant-Wilson jugate ferrotype stud. Bright and clear, but with some tiny scattered marks. VF. Very reasonable at 1,100.

18 Very rare 15 mm vest button, name "GENERAL JACKSON" to either side of shield. Albert 86, not in Sullivan or Hake. A dug example with overall light pitting but completely readable, no shank, would grade it VG overall. Only the second example I've seen in 36 years. 375

19 (photo a bit out of focus) Scarce 7/8 brass pinback, justice with scales, sunrise in background. Words Suffrage and Justice in Latin. An identical pin owned by Carrie Chapman Catt is in the Smithsonian and was pictured in the Feb. 1952 issue of The Numismatist. Rare, XF-AU. 600.

Portrait Herbert Hoover "Respect Our Flag and Constitution – President H.C. Hoover". The gold background looks like foil under the celluloid, and there is some whitish deterioration to the gold near the rim at around 10 -11:00 and also 2:00. Some rust on the metal back, not visible of course. The only example I've seen in 36 years as a full time dealer. Would no doubt be $3-5000 if perfect but I doubt if you will find another. 1,200.

176 Classic John Quincy Adams thread box in unusual bombe form. Bright and clean portrait inside lid, pincushion on top reads "Be Firm for Adams". Typical wear to pincushion, but slogan is totally readable. Well above average condition. 2,750.

177 Superb 1840's sulphide paperweight Zachary Taylor. White spots at right are reflections. I think this is the third one of these I've had in 36 years. 1,850.

178 (photo a bit fuzzy – item is bold, sharp, crisp) Unique sixth plate daguerreotype taken from the famous John Neagle image "Henry Clay and the American System". Clay stands beside flag and globe of world with plow, cattle and plains behind him. One of the most iconic images of antebellum politics, including prints and needleworks, but I have never seen or heard of a daguerreotype. Beautiful condition. 1,850.

179 Spectacular 5" nickel plated steel paperweight in the form of a plow. Impressed inscriptions "From Secretary Bryan to Attorney General McReynolds Aug. 13, 1914 – Diplomacy is the Art of Keeping Cool – Nothing is Final Between Friends – They Shall Beat their Swords into Plowshares". Bryan was a hardcore pacifist, and would soon resign as Secretary of State with the spread of WW I and his concerns over America's entanglements in Europe. His obvious lack of qualifications for the State Dept. are shown in this item and his attempt to get the Attorney General to share his isolationist views. Instead, James Clark McReynolds would leave the cabinet before the year was out to spend his next 27 years on the Supreme Court. Pristine condition. 1,850.

180 Very rare intaglio cut 3" glass paperweight "Millard Fillmore President of the United States 1850". One small corner chip on underside, only the second one I've had in 36 years. Fillmore 3-D display material is very hard to find. 1,200.

181 Previously, unseen small 1860 Lincoln ribbon 3 ½ x 2 1/4 , with the inscription For President in German, obviously for the extensive Pennsylvania German immigrant population. A few irregular edge nicks and small separations, VG. 1,500.

509 Rare 8" blue/wht silk, North Pacific Coast, Exc. 325.

510 This is special and most unusual. Large oil on canvas 22 x 30 showing a family in Europe gathered to read a letter from one of their own who went to seek his fortune in California. The lady reads a letter with postmarks clearly showing from San Francisco via New York, while the man at right sits on his cobbler's bench holding a $100 bill that was enclosed in the letter. Great detail – hearth, fire, pots, vegetables on floor, shoe molds, church visible through open door. Excellent condition in period frame 27 x 35. 3,950.

511 Matched pair high relief 10 ½ terracotta plaques with polychrome scenes plains Indians on horseback. One has a raised tomahawk, while the other is about to shoot a buffalo with his bow. By Johann Maresch, 1870's -80's. 750.

512 Rare 29" pennant, bear shaking hands with sailor, 1914. Soiling, wear at tip. 175.

513 Large 1830's Spanish colonial belduque knife, 19" overall, massive 14" iron blade, bone grip.

Extended curved pommel is a flint striker in the form of a snake. Marvelous piece of folk art. 1,500.

514 Large 15" Bowie, huge 10" clip point blade with false edge at top, bone grips. Moderate pitting and patches of rust, condition G-VG. No markings. Perfect if you want an inexpensive large knife for a display. Circa 1860's – 80's. 375.

515 7 x 11 silver plated tray by Unger Bros, with Indian profile. Catalog photo has dark reflections, item bright. 500.

516 Unique 12" skinning knife by Wilson Bros, Stillwater, MN, 1898. Made entirely of nickel plated steel, when the knob at the pommel is screwed in, the sharp blade slowly protrudes from the edge of the protective blade covers. With only a tiny bit of edge being used, the knife will not veer off course. Sliding latch allows entire blade to be removed. Accompanied by 4 pg. patent papers with diagrams and descriptions by the inventor, Nels Hockerson. Exc. 1,450.

517 Large oil painting of Indian chief 20 x 24, signed Bodis, a Hungarian who came to America in the mid 20th century. Circa 1950's, great image, nicely framed 27 x 31, exc. 975.

518 Gorgeous intricately detailed watercolor 15 x 20, signed Hanumann, copied from Karl Bodmer's famous 1834 painting of Pehriska-Ruhpa, leader of the Hidatsa Dog Society, posed in full society regalia and holding an amazing huge pipe. If you can't afford six figures for an original Bodmer, this piece has great presence for 1,000.

519 Complete set of 6 large poster stamps promoting Wells Fargo, historical scenes, circa 1915, exc. 100.

520 Great sixth plate ambrotype of a bearded man with suspenders and big bowtie drawing a large Bowie knife from his waistband. Exc. 750.

521 10 x 11 greenglaze art pottery plaque of Indian, probably Ohio, 1895-1920. Couple teensy glaze flakes, exc. 375.

522 Rare Modoc War broadside 8 x 11, published Salt Lake City 4/29/1873 "Latest From the Lava Beds – Severe Fighting – Troops Getting Worsted – Names of Killed and Wounded". Three columns detailed news from San Francisco, fighting, scalping, etc. Old crossed folds, trimmed close at top but not touching anything, fine. 1,250.

523 Terrific two sided enamel on silver cigarette case with casino motifs. One side with roulette wheel, side shown has layout for Trente et Quarante (Thirty and Forty), which is similar to backjack. These are the two standard table games in French casinos. Circa 1890-1920, exc. 850.

524 9 ½ silver letter opener, very high relief nude mermaid with trident. 150.

525 Scarce 4" nickel plated emblem for Anti Horse Thief Assn., exc. 300.

526 Great 4" wrought iron flint striker in form of two birds facing each other. 475.

528 Very nice 2 ¾" sterling silver pin of Indian chief. Looks like Unger Bros, but I can't find a hallmark. 375.

529 Gorgeous 9 ½ (not counting drop) beaded hide sheath. Red/wht/blk/blue designs on yellow and green background. Tin cones with chicken feathers. Circa 1880-1910, exc. 950.

530 Unusual 5" meerschaum cheroot holder in form of percussion rifle, complete with brass hammer, nipple and trigger guard. In original fitted case. 550.

531 This is wonderful – 8 ½ ivory pen by William Mitchell, England. Hand painted flowers frame a small 1" photo Buffalo Bill. Obviously made for one of his London shows 1887-92. Exc. 675.

532 Spectacular large Native American poster with text in English, Spanish and French. America Conquered by H. Preston's Old Jamaica Rum. Scene of Indian with buckskins, beadwork, bear claw necklace and tomahawk drinking the stuff from the bottle. Product made by Preston in Kingstown, Jamaica and sold through Bordeaux distributor. Poster by Demachy, Pech & Co, Bordeaux. 41 x 51, near mint, on linen. 1,750.

533 Scarce Buffalo Bill poster by Chaix, Paris. Indian with painted shield and Winchester rifle. 20 x 30, sepia/beige/black, near mint on linen. One I haven't seen before. 3,500.

To the Public.
Whereas MARCUS GILLIAM, has by means the most base and false, strove to destroy my reputation, and would not concede to any of those that have been made by my friends to have the matter investigated; and as the same now declared to say that he was of opinion that I was guilty of the act, which has according to report been laid to my charge, he has also refused to give me the satisfaction that an injured person has a right to require. I therefore pronounce him a liar, a base slanderer and a coward.
WM. NOBLE.
Petersburg, March 12, 1825.

To the Public.
The circumstances attending the loss of my Pocket Book were so strong, and so fully warranted my suspicions, as to convince me and every friend with whom I advised, that I could not, with propriety, accept the invitation contained in the note of William Noble. The ground of my refusal was, that I did not believe him to be a gentleman, which was distinctly stated to his friend who handed me the note. A regard to public opinion alone induces me to take this notice of so unprincipled vagabond & scoundrel.
Marius Gilliam.

'BALLAD OF SINN FEINERS'
Our God is self: though nations die
And countless thousands writhe in pain,
We shut our ears to moan and cry
And close our eyes to all the slain.
We frown not on the foulest deed
The reason for our stand is plain:
"OURSELVES ALONE", that is our creed.
An outraged maiden's dying sigh
Fills us with nought but cold disdain;
And when the Prussians crucify
Our friends we never wax insane
And curse the beasts who so bestain
This world of ours. Oh no, indeed.
By doing so what would we gain?
"OURSELVES ALONE", that is our creed.
